(b) and (c) The Electricity Act, 2003 is an important instrument of reforms. It provides for measures conducive to development of electricity industry, promoting competition therein. It aims at protecting interest of consumers and supply of electricity to all areas, rationalization of electricity tariff, ensuring transparent policies regarding subsidies, promotion of efficient and environmentally benign policies etc. The new law along with other measures of reforms including Accelerated Power Development and Reforms Programme (APDRP) are aimed at encouraging the States/Utilities to improve efficiencies.

Delegation of approval power to the State Governments

170. SHRI ABANI ROY: Will the Minister of POWER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have accorded powers to State Governments to approve hydro electric and thermal power projects;

(b) if so, whether a large number of State power projects are pending for approval with the Union Government; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF POWER (SHRIMATI JAYAWANTI MEHTA): (a) to (c) As per the Electricity Act, 2003, there is no requirement of license for thermal generation. However, any generating company intending to set up a hydro generating station shall prepare and submit to the Authority for its concurrence, a scheme estimated to involve a capital expenditure exceeding such sum as may be fixed by the Central Government from time to time by Notification.

Planning Commission has delegated full powers to State Governments for approval of power projects without any ceiling. Clearance from Planning Commission is to be restricted only to those hydro-electric projects where inter-State issues are involved.

At present, no hydro power project under State Sector is pending with Central Electricity Authority (CEA) for according Techno-Economic clearance.
